*Staff must complete and return the Recommend a Friend flyer before their friend submits an application for a post within Hillcrest Futures. The friend must clearly state on their application form at Section 12 that they heard about the vacancy via our recommend a friend scheme and give the name of the staff member. Staff will receive £100 if their friend is successful for any contracted posts within Hillcrest Futures. The referrer will then receive a further £100 on completion of the person's full probationary. Payments are subject to tax and NI. When a friend is recommended by more than one employee, payment will be made to the first employee who made the recommendation. This offer is only open to existing Hillcrest employees and cannot be used in conjunction with any other offer unless you are otherwise informed. Hillcrest Futures reserves the right to alter, cancel or withdraw the promotion without prior notice. Hillcrest Futures is a registered Scottish Charity, no. SC034261.
